INVITES APPLICATIONS FOR THE POSITION OF:
Commandant of Cadets

*An Equal Opportunity Employer*Applications accepted via NEOGOV.

JOB RESPONSIBILITIES:

The Citadel, the Military College of South Carolina, invites applications for the position of Commandant of Cadets.

Founded in 1842 and located on a 130-acre campus in historic Charleston, The Citadel is one of thirteen public, senior institutions within the South Carolina state system of higher education. The Citadel is also one of only six senior military colleges in the United States. The institution is a fully accredited, comprehensive, coeducational college offering undergraduate and graduate degrees through the Schools of Business, Education, Engineering, Humanities and Social Sciences, and Science and Mathematics. Through a full-time faculty, the College provides academic programs leading to B.A., B.S., M.A., M.A.E., M.A.T., M.B.A., M.Ed., M.S., and Ed. S. degrees. In the current Best Colleges ratings published by U.S. News & World Report, The Citadel is ranked first in its category for a third consecutive year.

The Citadel's mission is to educate and develop students to become principled leaders in all walks of life by instilling the core values of The Citadel in a disciplined and intellectually challenging environment. The cadet lifestyle provides a disciplined environment that supports the four pillars of The Citadel Experience: academics, military, physical effectiveness and moral/ethical development. The Corps of Cadets, all of whom live in barracks on campus, includes over 2,200 undergraduates drawn from almost every state in the union and twelve foreign countries.

MINIMUM AND ADDITIONAL REQUIREMENTS:

The Commandant of Cadets reports directly to the President and is responsible for the leadership training, administration, training, housing, good order and discipline of the Corps of Cadets. The successful candidate must have extensive military background with a minimum of 20 years of service in one of the branches of the Armed Forces of the U.S. The successful candidate must have held a senior military rank as a Colonel. Background in the command of military units (O-6 level) is required in order to provide the senior leadership for the Corps of Cadets. The successful candidate must have earned a master's degree and be able to communicate clearly and effectively with internal and external groups; and individuals.

The Commandant participates as a key member of the President's senior staff and strategic planning group. The Commandant must be able to effectively supervise a diverse staff of senior and mid-level reserve and retired officers and civilian employees. A demonstrated commitment to principled, ethical leadership is required. The Commandant must have recent professional experience in the development of young principled leaders. The successful candidate must have one of the following: 1) Assignment at a senior military college, or a federal service academy; OR 2) Graduation from a senior military college or federal service academy.

Must possess and maintain a level of physical conditioning that would allow participation with cadets during physical training.

PREFERRED QUALIFICATIONS:

Preferred education and experience include the following:

1) A degree or formal training in a field related to leadership with demonstrated practical experience in leadership positions responsible for the development of principled leaders,
2) Professional experience in a higher education or a military service school setting.

ADDITIONAL COMMENTS:

This position requires the incumbent to reside in designated quarters on campus.

Candidates must submit a letter outlining the candidate's interest for this position with an explanation of how their background aligns with The Citadel vision and mission and qualifies them for this position.

The Citadel is an affirmative action/equal opportunity employer actively committed to ensuring diversity in all campus employment.

Supplemental questions are required and considered part of your official application.
