

Major Melissa Ayres graduated Officer Candidate School and was commissioned in 1998. After graduating from The Basic School, she attended Personnel Administrator School's Adjutant Course and reported to Marine Corps Air Station, Yuma, AZ as the Station Adjutant. While at MCAS Yuma, she attended the Legal Justice School's Legal Administration Officer Course and served as the Headquarters and Headquarters Squadron Legal Admin Officer.

In August 2002, 1stLt Ayres reported to Headquarters Marine Corps, Equal Opportunity Branch in Quantico, VA. She attended the Defense Equal Opportunity Management Institute Program Manager Course and served as the Program Manager for the African American and Asian Pacific Islander programs.

Capt Ayres transitioned to the Reserve component in 2005 and joined the MCB Quantico G-1 IMA Det as the Contingency Operations Officer. She deployed as an IA with 2nd MarDiv in 2007-2008 and served as the Adjutant and Deputy Command Inspector.

Major Ayres is a technical writer for a government contractor.