National Naval Officers Association

The National Naval Officers Association (NNOA) is a professional networking organization consisting of active duty, reserve, and retired sea service officers and other interested persons. NNOA was formed in 1972 at Annapolis, Maryland in an effort to increase the number of minority candidates to the Naval Academy. In the ensuing years, NNOA's focus has broadened to include all aspects of the sea services that influence improving diversity in the officer corps of the sea services and the upward progression of it's members. NNOA's overarching goals include recruiting assistance, identifying problem areas that affect the progression of officers, professional development training, promoting camaraderie and promoting a positive image of the sea services in our communities. Bottom line is the NNOA is about enhancing diversity and professionalism in the Sea Services.

SFBA NNOA Monthly meetings are held in the Special Events Room, Coast Guard Island Alameda, CA on the 1st Tuesday of every month at 1130.
